Code and Crime Concerns 3200 South Bannock

A resident in the 3200 Block of South Bannock Street raised concerns about crime in the area, parking issues and sidewalks not being cleared of snow. The resident believes the source of the problems is a nearby bar. Besides the bar, there is also a music venue nearby and on concert nights parking from this venue spills over into the neighborhood.

Englewood Police Officers regularly conduct patrols in this area and enforce all applicable laws and ordinances. Patrol Officers will be conducting additional directed patrols in this area to further address crime and parking concerns. Englewood Police Impact Officers will be conducting directed patrols in this area as well. Impact Officers will be doing plainclothes patrols in unmarked police vehicles and during the spring and summer will conduct patrols utilizing bicycles. Englewood Police Code Officers will monitor the area for snow removal violations as well as other code violations.
