Economic Indicators and Monetary Policy

The Fed raised the Fed Funds Rate by 25bp, as expected, to a range of 5% to 5.25%. This is the tenth consecutive hike. The fed signalled a pause is likely to follow, indicating the potential that it could be the end of the hiking cycle.

CPI fell slightly to 4.9% year-on-year in April, from 5% in March, the lowest level in two years. Core CPI ticked down slightly to 5.5% from 5.6%. Importantly, the Fed’s closely-watched “supercore” inflation measure (core services excluding housing) reached the lowest level since last July. Elsewhere, the “sticky” shelter inflation category appears to be decelerating, trending at 0.4% month-over-month in April, from 0.6% in March and 0.8% in February. Core goods accelerated for the first time since March 2022, driven by a rebound in used cars prices, which snapped nine months of declining prices (Chart 1).

Q1 GDP was revised upward from 1.1% to 1.3%. A smaller drag from inventories and stronger consumption were the largest factors in the upward revisions.

The labor market remained resilient. The ratio of job openings per worker fell from 1.9 to 1.7, the lowest since November 2011. Nonfarm payrolls rose by 243,000, above expectations of 185,000. Job gains were broad-based.

On the weaker side, temporary workers again saw the most job losses (and are considered the first to lose their jobs when the labor market turns) and the leisure and hospitality segment continued to grow, but at a slower rate closer to the pre-pandemic rate. However, wage growth ticked up slightly from 4.3% to 4.4% year-on-year, or 0.5% month-on-month, the latter being the fastest since early 2022. The unemployment rate fell from 3.5% to 3.4%, with the participation rate holding steady at 62.6%.

Lending conditions appeared to continue tightening. The Senior Loan Officer Opinion Survey indicated that banks tightened lending standards for almost all categories of borrowers. Additionally, loan demand was particularly weak among small firms, consumers and real estate borrowers (Chart 2).

Interest Rate Summary

Yields rose across the curve. At the end of May, the 3-month US Treasury bill yielded 5.42%, the 6-month US Treasury bill yielded 5.46%, the 2-year US Treasury note yielded 4.41%, the 5-year US Treasury note yielded 3.76% and the 10-year US Treasury note yielded 3.65%.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

As of May 31, 2023

Past performance is not a guide to future performance. The value of investments and any income from them will fluctuate and is not guaranteed (this may partly be due to exchange rate changes) and investors may not get back the amount invested. Transactions in foreign securities may be executed and settled in local markets. Performance comparisons will be affected by changes in interest rates. Investment returns fluctuate due to changes in market conditions. Investment involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. No assurance can be given that the performance objectives of a given strategy will be achieved. The information contained herein is for your reference only and is being provided in response to your specific request and has been obtained from sources believed to be reliable; however, no representation is made regarding its accuracy or completeness. This document must not be used for the purpose of an offer or solicitation in any jurisdiction or in any circumstances in which such offer or solicitation is unlawful or otherwise not permitted. This document should not be duplicated, amended, or forwarded to a third party without consent from Insight. This is a marketing document intended for professional clients only and should not be made available to or relied upon by retail clients.

Investment advisory services in North America are provided through two different SEC-registered investment advisers using the brand Insight Investment: Insight North America LLC (INA) and Insight Investment International Limited (IIL). The North American investment advisers are associated with a broader group of global investment managers that also (individually and collectively) use the corporate brand Insight Investment and may be referred to as Insight, Insight Group or Insight Investment.

INA is an investment adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended. Registration with the SEC does not imply a certain level of skill or training. You may request, without charge, additional information about Insight. Moreover, specific information relating to Insights strategies, including investment advisory fees, may be obtained from INA's Form ADV Part 2A, which is available without charge upon request.

Where indicated, performance numbers used in the analysis are gross returns. The performance reflects the reinvestment of all dividends and income. INA charges management fees on all portfolios managed and these fees will reduce the returns on the portfolios. For example, assume that $30 million is invested in an account with INA, and this account achieves a 5.0% annual return compounded monthly, gross of fees, for a period of five years. At the end of five years that account would have grown to $38,500,760 before the deduction of management fees. Assuming management fees of 0.25% per year are deducted monthly from the account, the value at the end of the five year period would be $38,022,447. Actual fees for new accounts are dependent on size and subject to negotiation. INA's investment advisory fees are discussed in Part 2A of its Form ADV.

In calculating ratings distributions and weighted average portfolio quality, Insight assigns U.S Treasury and U.S agency securities a quality rating based on the methodology used within the respective benchmark index. When Moody's, S&P and Fitch rate a security, Bank of America and Merrill Lynch indexes assign a simple weighted average statistic while Barclays indexes assign the median statistic. Insight assigns all other securities the lower of Moody's and S&P ratings.
