COMMUNITY KUDOS

- Google review for the Englewood Rec Center: Great Job, you got a 5-star review:
Joshua T.: "I have nothing bad to say. Clean environment. Very happy with my visit."

- Kudos to Toni Arnoldy from Excalibur Outreach:

We here at Excalibur Outreach wanted to take a second to send a HUGE, heartfelt thank you to you for all of your efforts and support in 2023. Several of our events would not have been possible were it not for you and your amazing team of peers, coworkers, and volunteers. Your continued support from year to year has been instrumental in making Excalibur Outreach a success.

Not only have you and your organization provided much needed emotional and physical support, but you have been boots on the ground support, coming to events to hand out turkeys, coming to fundraisers, and opening up your "work home" for us to use as donation, collection and giveaway sites for Turkey Drives. Your connections within the City of Englewood have also proven to be extremely beneficial.

Our partnership with you has extended beyond the typical business level and has become a family relationship. We truly value your support, dedication, and passion for helping those in need, and helping us help the underserved in our community and those suffering from food insecurities.

We look forward to partnering with you for years to come and hope to be involved in many more projects with you, and the City of Englewood. Thank you, from the bottom of our hearts.

Thank you,

Justin Combs, Director of Programs

Brian Collins, Director, Excalibur Outreach
