

It's All Happening Downtown

Downtown Englewood is positively vibrating with energy, pride and excitement! This summer, outdoor paseos and a craft-inspired alley were filled with music and conversation. The entertainment district is buzzing with bars, restaurants and music. Civic Center's CitySpark is gearing up with small-business workshops, history retrospectives and art shows. And our Wellness District heals body and soul with respected medical facilities and supporting businesses.

Downtown Englewood is all about creating community. Here, you can bloom where you're planted!

Shaping South Broadway's Future

The EDDA is working to make South Broadway's core blocks more appealing and safer for everyone. A vibrant main street will attract more visitors and businesses to our unique city. During the Englewood Block Party on August 24, EDDA representatives outlined the South Broadway Public Realm Action Plan, which is being created with public input. The vision includes new streetscaping, lighting, street trees, plantings, patios, safer sidewalks, alley gathering spaces and short-term pilot projects. Learn more at <https://bit.ly/3X8kcll>

Make a Night of It in Downtown Englewood

Our very own entertainment district boasts everything you need for an amazing night on the town! Start with a tasty beer at Lady Justice – a brewery that empowers Colorado women, girls and nonbinary people – or a creative cocktail at the Whiskey Biscuit. Then, walk over to Spicy Basil for Asian cuisine or pick up an award-winning burrito at Garibaldi Mexican Bistro. You'll still have time to see a show at the Gothic Theater, followed by a nightcap and billiards or darts at Felt! The perfect evening – all in Downtown Englewood!

Mutiny Information Café coming to South Broadway!

This funky, free-wheeling business is relocating to Downtown Englewood, due to open at 3483 S Broadway in early October! One of Denver's oldest (and most loved) used bookstores, Mutiny will continue to serve up great conversation, coffee, comics, pinball, albums and a curated book collection. The basement space will host community events and concerts. "Englewood is a fantastic city to work with," said co-owner Jim Norris. So glad to have Mutiny in Englewood! Learn more at mutinybooks.com
